Details

The telephone lists are distributed on CD or can be downloaded. The U.S.A. business and residential lists are pre-sorted by zip code. You also receive a file containing the entire state not sorted. A software tool is included that allows you to sort the lists by: city or area code or area code and prefix. The business list can also be sorted by business code.

Frequently Asked Question Answers

1. No, these lists have NOT been scrubbed for against the DNC (Do Not Call) List.
2. The lists are comma delimited .txt files.
3. The lists can be sorted by city, area code, and area code + prefix. In addition the business lists can be sorted by business type and business code. All lists are already pre-sorted by zip code.
4. We only sell the lists by state, you can then use the included software to sort by city or area code. (We have already pre-sorted the list by zip code for you and include those files along with the entire state in one file)
5. When you buy a single list for $239, you get your choice, either business or residential. If you want both, you have to purchase both.
6. No demographics are available. The information is basically the same as what you would see in the white pages.
7. You should be able to import the data into most dialer software. The comma delimited .txt file is a common format and will work with many applications.
8. For information on how many numbers are in a particular state, see the state count page. For more specific counts, such as a city or area code, call us at 1-800-364-4086 or email us at sales@autodialersonline.com
9. The business list does contain business codes, but they are not SIC codes. The business codes can be used to sort the lists by for specific business types.
10. The lists are updated yearly. You must purchase the list at full price each year to obtain the latest list.

CallPhysics provides no warranty regarding the accuracy of the data provided.

Terms of Using This Product:

• SOFTWARE LICENSE:

Upon receipt of the purchase price, Seller agrees to grant to Buyer a Software License to use its copyrighted software on 1 computer. The software is protected by United States copyright laws and international treaty provisions; however, Buyer may make copies of the Software for backups and demonstrations. This software may not be resold. Data may be used publicly in limited distribution, not to exceed 100 KB of data to any non-licensed user at any single event.

• COMPUTER MINIMUM REQUIREMENTS:

These are large files requiring lots of processing capacity. For the average size state, Buyer will need a computer with Windows 2000 or XP with at least 1 GHZ processor, 256 MB of RAM, 2 gigabytes of AVAILABLE hard drive space, Super VGA Monitor, Keyboard, and Mouse. More RAM and higher processing speed will enhance the processing of these lists, and 10 or more gigabytes of available hard drive space may be required if you load the entire lists.

• TELEPHONE TECHNICAL SUPPORT:

One Hour or One Year (whichever comes first) of Technical Support is included with the purchase price for the original Buyer/User. Additional time may be purchased for $75 per hour. Technical Support includes helping User install and learn how to use this software. Technical Support does not include teaching the User how to use a computer or how to use other vendors' software such as Windows or databases, or how to use telephone systems or network computers. Technical Support can explain to the User how to import and manage User's telephone number lists and Do Not Call lists, but Technical Support cannot actually edit or modify User's lists for him/her. If User does not have basic computer skills, a professional should be hired to contact Technical Support for installation and training. Technical Support hours are 9 am to 5 pm (US Central Time Zone), Monday through Friday, except for holidays. User may at any time leave VOICE MESSAGES or send E-mails with questions. Technical Support will make every reasonable effort to resolve questions and problems on a timely basis, within the times listed above; however, Technical Support may not always be able to resolve every problem, nor respond to every call immediately.

• DISCLOSURE OF LIABILITY/RESPONSIBILITY:

Buyer is aware that these telephone lists have NOT been stripped of any "Do Not Call" telephone numbers.

This product has the capability of being used in a variety of ways. The Buyer/User assumes all liability and responsibility for only operating this product legally, according to federal, state, and/or local laws. Laws are complex and may change from time to time, and laws vary from country to country and from state to state. A violation of any such laws could result in significant penalties and other sanctions. The Seller and the Manufacturer and its Technicians and Representatives are instructed not to offer any legal advice or interpretation of laws regarding the use of this product; however, if any advice or interpretation of laws is given, it should not be relied upon. Prior to buying or using this product, the Buyer/User should consult with an attorney to determine the extent of permissible activities. This is especially important if the Buyer/User intends to use this product for solicitation purposes (direct marketing, telemarketing, etc.). In addition, the Buyer/User should be aware that he or she may be responsible for maintaining "Do Not Call" lists.

The Seller and Manufacturer strive to provide the highest quality software and hardware; however, there are a number of factors that can cause system malfunctions including, but not limited to, operator error, software corruption, software bugs, telephone line problems, electrical surges, hardware defects, and computer failures. The Manufacturer has provided the Buyer/User with tools to assist in cleaning the Buyer/User's dialing lists of "Do Not Call" telephone numbers; however, the Manufacturer cannot guarantee 100% integrity or reliability of these tools. The Seller and Manufacturer and its Technicians cannot be responsible if the Buyer/User adds other software or hardware that corrupt the system or for any other malfunctions.

The Buyer/User is responsible for making frequent backups of his or her system to protect against any loss of valuable data. The Seller and Manufacturer and its Technicians cannot be responsible for loss of data for any reason whatsoever. The Seller or Manufacturer will not be liable for any lost revenue, lost profits, penalties, fines, legal judgments, or other expenses due to loss of data, hardware or software problems, or for any other reason.

By using this product, the Buyer/User accepts 100% of the responsibility and liability regarding its use and will hold the Seller and the Manufacturer and its Technicians and Representatives completely harmless from any fines, penalties, litigation, expenses, or claims for any reason.
